

Special Symposium on the History of Modern Indonesia

The End of the Postwar Indonesian Regime: Knowledge Production and Indonesia's Foreign Interactions in the 1950s-60s

Date/ time: February 17, 2018, from 13:30-17:30

Venue: Room 4 B (4th floor), National Graduate Institute for Policy Studies (GRIPS)

(For access; <http://www.grips.ac.jp/en/about/access/>)

Speakers:

1. Keynote: Douglas Kammen (National University of Singapore)
The Social History of the Cornell Paper
2. William Bradley Horton (CSEAS, Kyoto University)
The Return of 'That Romanian': Guy Pauker and the late 1960s
3. Kaoru Kochi (Kanda University of International Studies)
The Indonesian Military-Academic Nexus: Nugroho Notosusanto and General Suwanto
4. Mayumi Yamamoto (Miyagi University)
Geertz, Complicit Academia, and American Cold War Paranoia
5. Japanese Intellectual Interactions: A Few Closing Words (William Bradley Horton)

Moderator: Jafar Suryomenggolo (GRIPS)

This symposium and open discussion is organized under a JSPS research project on Indonesian wartime and postwar networks (科学研究 基盤 B No. 16H05679, 代表:山本まゆみ).